

The book's title:

Principles of the Geopolitical Game for Survival

Important note: the below translation is just a first draft made with the help of on-line service.

Table of Contents

Statement of co-authors	15
Author's statement	15
Acknowledgements	16
Reference system and conventions used in the book	19

PART I: Rules of the Game

Theme 1. Perceptual and conceptual concept tools

- Patterns perceived in the hopelessly tangled chaos
An introductory word and key concepts
- Concepts necessary for building useful mental images
- Geopolitical minority report
The author's reservations about ideological and emotional bias
- Military men and children like to scare each other
How homeostats negotiate status and access to resources
- The hegemon has died, long live the hegemon! Are we raising the cry too early?
A vision of the laws of what is happening on the geopolitical Chessboard (Satirical remarks)

Theme II KEY REGULARITIES AND CONCEPTS

- Four key aspects of geopolitical games
Conceptual introduction
- A masterful provocation (by Andrzej Byrt)
The story of a certain converted telegram - the ems telegram
- Why North Korea still exists?
Accountability and instruments of influence in the geopolitical games

- NGOs - condottieres of the 21st century
Activists for hire agents of influence and unaccountable instruments of geopolitical influence
- The philosophy of biological survival and social cohesion
Demography and victims of the Semmelweis effect
- Decision space and the environment
The functioning of the geopolitical homeostats
- Internal and external parameters of the states' strenght
- Historical politics of states
"Common myth" in geopolitical games
- Social revolutions and imperial ideologies
Social engineering in the service of unidentified decision-making centers
- "Make them fight each other" (by Grzegorz Antoszek)
How leaders push a nation to war
- The game of false justifications of modern powers
Protectionism, free trade and other examples of the games of appearances and pretexts
- The Six-Day War
The perplexities of accountability and attribution of perpetration
- The philosophy of retaliation and the escalation ladder
Why participants in conflicts simultaneously fight, cooperate and talk
- Predictability more important than control?
Rule four: predictability and its economics
- Soundly battered, but alive!
Why wasn't the Kingdom of Siam colonized?
- Other key concepts and laws
Perceptual instrumentation of the geopolitics student

Topic 3. Decision geography of empires

- Why do modern wars break out without them being declared? (by Andrzej Byrt)
The territorial behavior of geopolitical homeostats 242
- The logic of competition for resources
- Leviathans of the food market
Who rules the food market is the master of life and death
- Who is an ally and who is a tool?
Kurdistan as an example of simultaneous divergence and convergence of interests
- Japan - an empire out of necessity
Japanese imperialism as an unintended consequence of the ushering in of modernity

- "One twist of the screwdriver away"
Does Japan have nuclear weapons ready for use? Speculation and insights in the context of the Israeli case study

Part II: The Playoffs

Topic 4. Energy, civilization and the Pax Americana

- Energy is everything. Introduction-Vision
- Pax Americana
Key mechanisms of the modern world order
- The shale revolution
Is the United States operating on borrowed time?
- Geopolitical judo
Details and particulars of the confrontation between China and the United States
- Geopolitical concerns of the United States
Mississippi River Basin - the most productive region in the world
- Scenarios for the collapse of the United States and China
The great geopolitical taboo zone

Theme 5. "Axis of Evil"

- Check! "Axis of evil" that will no longer be created
Energy autarky and other parameters of the key game for the world
- The game over Ukraine. When you don't know what it's about, it's about energy
Playing the game for Ukraine. Reconceptualization in light of the struggle for control of energy resources
- Russia
Weaknesses and advantages of the last white man's empire
- China
Will China become a Middle Kingdom again
- Germany and its European Union
Mechanisms of the European superstate

Topic 6. Nodal places

- What are "focal points"
The laws that govern key regions

- What makes Africa not conducive to building states and civilizations
Geographical determinism and the philosophy of civilization
- Transcaucasia and the Caspian region
An example of a buffer area in the function of no man's land
-
- Strait of Hormuz (by Andrzej Kruczynski)
Geopolitical Gordian knot
- Turkish Straits
Perfect connectivity and geopolitical clinch
- Malacca
War or prosperity - the choice belongs to no-one
- Suez Canal
Characteristics of geopolitical importance
- Panama Canal
Building a coherent imperial project and the Monroe Doctrine
- The English Channel, the North Sea and the Danish Straits
The cradle of European cultural evolution and shipping
- North Atlantic
Ephemeral choke points in the space of our mental images

Theme 7. Areas of special interest

- Will they enter - will they not enter?
Why there will never be an invasion of Taiwan
- The Middle East and the Persian Gulf
The geographic and energy center of the globalized world
- Saudi Arabia
The second most important country of the Pax Americana era
- Iran
Weaknesses and advantages in geopolitical gamesmanship
- Israel
Weaknesses and advantages in geopolitical gamesmanship
- Turkey
Weaknesses and advantages in geopolitical gamesmanship

Topic VIII Resilience of states to the breakdown of the global order (overview)

- Afghanistan and Pakistan
- India
- Brazil
- Iraq
- Qatar
- Algeria and Morocco
- Mexico and Canada
- Australia

Topic IX Overview of world history events

- Protonarod before the "first world war"
The beginnings of the United States in the Seven Years' War: selected episodes
- A century of China's national humiliation
The Opium Wars and the fall of the Qing Dynasty
- The Portuguese imperial episode
Technology and geography as elements of a synergistic process

Topic X What will the future bring?

- "China's Protest Causes UN Dissolution"
Scenarios for the collapse of the global order
- The end of Pax Americana
What will the "end of the world as we know it" bring?
- The future of civilization
Sensitivity parameters of the global homeostat
- The future of Poland
- A mesmerizing kaleidoscope of geopolitical games
Closing column

END