

PATTERNS FOR VICTORY vol. 2
Crucial Battles of Great Powers
by Piotr Plebaniak

See samples and summary of this book at <https://chiny.pl/books>
Contact info to the author: piotr.plebaniak@gmail.com

Table of Contents

System of references and conventions used in the "Patterns" series	11
Acknowledgments	13
Authors' statements	14
Due to the lack of a horseshoe, the kingdom was lost	17
Introduction

Topic I

Campaigns and operations

Falklands 1982 23

Episodes of British intervention

Landing at Inchon 1952 69

MacArthur's vision and the West's desperation

Topic II

Technological breakthroughs

Karaka and galleon 101

First ocean units and the key advantage of colonial powers

The technological path to the Maxim rifle 109

Second Boer War – the first modern conflict

Topic III

Mahan, battleships, and dreadnoughts

Nelson 141

Battle at the mouth of the Nile 1798 148

Trafalgar 1805 161

Admiral Yamamoto: from Tsushima to Midway 177

Tsushima 1905 183

Fall of Port Arthur 1904–1905 223

Midway 1942 253

Topic IV

Founding battles of America

Bunker Hill 1775 313

Interaction of combat capability parameters in a situation of their asymmetry

Alamo 1836 325

Military confrontation with the inertia of political processes

Topic V

Acts of military genius and and not them

Battle of Quebec, September 13, 1759 339

Wolfe's masterful maneuver

Colonel Doolittle's raid 1942 349

Master of aviation and his inspired vision

The Suez Canal is not a problem! (1973) 367

Masterful move by the Egyptians during the Yom Kippur War

Annexes

Explanation of symbolic elements 393

List of specialized frames 395

List of maps and battle plans 395

Index of referenced historical illustrations 397

(Wars, campaigns, battles, skirmishes)

Selected bibliography 398